Office Action Summary

Art Unit:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over GB'258.

GB'258 discloses the claimed electrical component for circuit board mounting. It is noted that the size and cross-sectional area of the bolt pins and the material selection is deemed a matter of obvious design choice.

4. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as clearly anticipated over Little (5,141,445).

Art Unit:

5. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB'258 in view of GB'950.

It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to provide slightly conical bolt holes for the GB'258 device in view of slightly conical bolt holes design of GB'950. This design feature would provide for better mating and guiding of the bolt pins to the bolt holes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

At line 2, the phrase "in consideration of the number and material thereof" is vague and indefinite.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Examiner Khiem Nguyen whose telephone number is (703) 308-1738.
